

JENNIFER & JOHN

New Romantic

WHO Jennifer Wakelin, 31, owner of Cirqlate Publicity, and John Mulligan, 32, chef and owner of L'Amour Catering.

WHERE The ceremony was held at Our Lady Star of the Sea church in Watsons Bay, Sydney, and the reception was held at The Armoury at the Gap Bluff Centre, also in Watsons Bay.

GUESTS 200.

THEME "Black, white and silver."

DRESS "It was all white, with a combination of French-beaded lace for the bodice and layers of silk chiffon and silk satin on the skirt."

RINGS "My engagement ring is a Tiffany & Co. 'Lucida' diamond, and our wedding rings are Tiffany & Co. 'Lucida' platinum bands."

BRIDAL PARTY "I had two bridesmaids, and John had a best man and a groomsman."

BRIDESMAIDS' TUXEDOS "The girls wore white tuxedos. I kinda stole the idea from pics of the Charlie's Angels: Full Throttle premiere!"

FLOWERS "My bouquet was a mix of white Thai and Dutch tulips bound with vine. The girls' were smaller, without the Dutch tulips."

INVITATIONS "Black-and-white '70s floral fabric scanned and made into invites, sealed with a wax 'J' stamp – for Jenny and John."

THE DAY "The day before, I think I had morning sickness, as I was three-and-a-half months pregnant. Luckily, on the day I was fine. After hair and make-up, we all got ready at Doyle's Palace Hotel, Watsons Bay."

MENU "Having a husband who owns a catering company specialising in weddings is great! We ate everything from Yamba king prawns and chicken san choy bow, to lamb-and-cumin pie and grilled kingfish in flatbread."

COST "Too much! Let's just say it went about $10,000 over budget!"

"MY FRIENDS Jamie and Gill were bridesmaids."

"WE WALKED from the church to the reception."

I was three-and-a-half months pregnant at our wedding. I THINK THE MOST SPECIAL PART FOR BOTH OF US was knowing that our bubba was there, too, SHARING OUR SPECIAL DAY

"MY SHOES were by Franco Burroni."

INVITATIONS sealed with a 'J'.
